

Gibson, Paris

November 26, 1884

Hill to Gibson

Your Pennsylvania coal man will be of little use, for our coal is quite different from the one he is used to. Weather permitting, I'll soon have further examination made by "men who will demonstrate just what the coal is worth."

JJH LetterBook, 10/18/84 - 3/14/85, p. 178