

Good Roads

April 11, 1904

E. L. Powers to J. J. Hill.

"In view of the fact that we shall make the May issue of this magazine [Good Roads] a souvenir number in honor of the National Good Roads Convention to be held in St. Louis we would much appreciate a few words from you for publication in relation to the good roads movement as it affects railroad interests."

General correspondence by date