

Granby Mine

December 18, 1913

Wm. Y. Williams to James J. Hill.

Worked for Jay P. Graves of Spokane for about 15 years "in charge--in various capacities--of the mines which he was manager of. States that he was "requested to take a vacation without pay two years ago."

See also: Carbon. [Hill] to Williams, Dec. 24, 1913 stating: "In trying to help the propeety in its early days some of the interests with which I am connected took part of its securitie Later, in order to protect the investment already made, we had to buy Mr. Groves' holdings, and have since been compelled to make heavy advances in cash. The present outlook for the property is not encouraging and I could not recommend any further purchases..."

General correspondence by date