

Grand Pacific Hotel
(Moorhead, Minn.)

January 28, 1895

Healion to F.E.Ward.

Gives the financial status of the Grand Pacific Hotel in Moorhead and reports on the condition of the hotel and its furnishings, heating plant, etc. Baker, the proprietor, kept the books and financial records of the hotel very well until June, 1894, but has kept them in a most un-satisfactory manner since. Also reports on lands [in or near Moorhead, Minn.]

M. Healion to F. E. Ward.

Healion reports on financial condition, as well as the state of repair of this hotel. Evidently some plans were being made to close the hotel, for Healion writes:

"It is hard to advise what to do..."
"should the hotel be closed up, it would have the effect of injuring the business of the Great Northern Ry. Co."
