

Great Falls, Montana -

August 28, 1893

Paris Gibson to Hill

Economic conditions in Great Falls: the smelte Sand Coulee coal mines, the fluring mill (which is just starting to use electric power), agriculture, etc. "The gang of theives and scoundrels who have ruled this town and Cascad County" have left in panic having "failed and left the way open for an honest economical city and county government."

General Correspondence by Date