

Great Nor. Road-Strikes May 11, 1894

Samuel Thorne to James J. Hill.

"very glad your strike is settled though expected it would have been a shorter fight. Sincerely hope the new organization will not soon grow to be the great power that it looks this time [?] it must become."

General correspondence by date