

Great Northern Road - Terminals. July 18, 1896.

F. D. Underwood to James J. Hill.

Understands that his company (Minneapolis, St. Paul & Sault Ste. Marie Railway) should, on short notice, be permitted to run freight for St. Paul and Minneapolis into the Great Northern Railway terminal yards at those places.

General Correspondence.