

Great Northern Road-
Train Robbery

November 15, 1898

J. J. Toomey to W. C. Toomey.

"The six men arrested at Moorhead, on suspicion of being implicated in the express train robbery, are no doubt the guilty parties, and there is every indication that a strong case can be made against them."

General correspondence by date.