

Gregg, Oren C.

April 15, 1887

Hill to Gregg, Minneapolis

"The railways have been called upon to do so many things that it has become necessary ...to draw the line somewhere. I would be glad at any time to help to enlighten the farmers, but they seem determined on self destruction and perhaps best to let them go their own way at present."

JJH LetterBook, 11/26/86 - 6/6/87, p. 452