

Hanna - Payne Shipping Bill

Feb., 1899

also called the Edmunds bill after Sen. Edmunds of Vermont prior to becoming agent for the passage of the bill.

Printed. Washington. By Sam. Adams Robinson

Explains the bill and why the railroad and steamship lines are back of it."The genesis of this bill is greed, its mask enterprise and patriotism and its purpose, monopoly. No foreign built or foreign manned ship should be subsidized with American money."

General Correspondence by Date