

"The Globe"

March 30, 1901

Louis W. Hill to J.J.. Hill.

Re option given Lind, Rosing and their associates on the "St. Paul Globe." Does not believe the paper should be turned over to them since they are most unfriendly to Hill. Suggests letting the "Dispatch" run the "Globe" Thinks "this would be more satisfactory to you than putting it into the hands of dangerous and unfriendly populists."
