

Harding, R.H.

January 8, 1898

R.H.Harding to James J. Hill.

Discusses maintenance on the Kalispell and Cascade Divisions of the Great Northern Road. Believes there is too much trouble on the Kalispell Division and believes "it will be necessary to place somebody in charge of the division who has knowledge of general outside work and is capable of judging when work is being done properly and to advantage."

General correspondence      date