

Harris, George B.

October 17, 1902

George Harris to Jas. J. Hill.

Re Moffat's plan of offering Denver and Northwestern [and Pacific] Road bonds in the East.

States that, "If you think best to do anything with Mr. Moffat, the present would appear to be a good time, before he publishes his scheme.

The country west of Denver is pretty well occupied by interests adverse to [the] Burlington and the north a Colorado field is so valuable, that I am inclined to think it would be well to do something about this."
