

Hauser, Samuel T.

April 10, 1886

Hill to Samuel Thorne

Broadwater is here and describes Hauser's reception as "very lively." Oakes is about ready to throw him overboard, for Hauser has made the Northern Pacific very unpolular in Montana.

Hill to John S. Kennedy

Re opposition to Hauser in Montana. Broadwater says that Oakes told him "that with the absence of expense of river crossings and low grades, the extension of the Manitoba road into Montana would ruin the Northern Pacific."
