

Higginson, H.L.

September 4, 1899

H.L.Higginson to J.J.Hill.

Has read Lord Beresford's book on China. This book indicates that China "is an immense field for trade which our country as well as England may utilize if we both will, leaving the 'door open' to all comers."

Discusses the "Open Door" policy.

General correspondence by date