

Higginson, Henry L.

February 3, 1889

Higginson to JJH, General Correspondence

Wonders if JJH "had seen Mr. Shaw's pictures here" [in Boston]--"I doubt if any one has such a collection of Millet, or of Corot." Discusses other art work at the American Art Gallery (NY) and elsewhere. On railroad matters: "The R.R.' must have peace, or the public will give them up in disgust." Mentions NP and CPR.
