

Hill, James J. - Addresses      February 13, 1885

J. S. Kennedy to Hill

I received a copy of your address to the Legislature and read it with much interest. It put the whole matter fairly and squarely before them. I have a poor opinion of legislators;" "Such people are just the kind of material for demagogues to work upon who have their own axes to grind."

General Correspondence by Date