

Hill, James J.- Animal Husbandry. 1886,
Jan. 23.

Austen Wiswell to "Col." J.J.Hill.

Written across letter in pencil in Hill's own handwriting, "I have distributed about 160 bulls which is [word illegible] what I started to do, i.e. to put an average of five in each county of 30 counties to enable the farmers to start a foundation of good cattle."

General Correspondence.