

Hill, James J.-Art Interests Oct. 26, 1887

C. L. Hutchinson to Jas. J. Hill.

Hutchinson, president of Corn Exchange Bank of Chicago asks Hill to loan "two or three of the choicest [paintings] for the opening exhibit of our new art museum."
[Was it the Chicago Art Institute][?]

General correspondence by date