

Hill, James J.-Art Interests      Oct. 29, 1888

Eduard Schultze to James J. Hill.

Offers for sale two paintings from the Reichenheim [?] gallery in Berlin -- "the Christening," by Knaus and one by Troyon. States that the Corcoran Gallery of Art in Washington, D.C. have considered buying these paintings, but cannot come to an agreement with Schultze.

General correspondence by date