

Hill, James J. - Biographical Sept. 6, 1916.
Duluth

Chas. Brown to H. H. Parkhouse.
(of Brown Bros.
Photographers)

"We have the work of illustrating the life of Mr. J.J.Hill, that is going to be published by the Doubleday Page & Co., we have had our operators up in Rockwood, Canada, where they got some very interesting pictures relative to the early life of Mr. Hill, his School Master, the school he attended, the store he worked in etc."

Filed in papers transferred in 1963 to (see back of card)

the Louis W. Hill Collection.

See also the February, 1963 correspondence file of Grace Lee Nute for letter from Brown Bros. stating that they still have negatives of the photographs referred to.
