

Hill, James J.-Charities      January 16, 1900

Carbon. [Toomey] to J.F.Morand

"Some years ago Mr. Hill used to take care of cases such as yours whenever they were called to his attention, but of late years these demands have become so numerous - some days more than ten or twelve, that he has found it impossible to give such matters attention, and instead of doing so, has made annual contributions to religious, educational denominations having their headquarters within this city..."

General correspondence by date