

Hill, James J. Art Interests. July 13, 1892.

Kate Field to J. J. Hill.

Kate Field was editor and owner of the publication, Kate Fields Washington, which in 1892 was active in trying to get passage of a bill in Congress to remove the tax on foreign art objects. Hill donated money to help print 5,000 copies of report of Free Art Meeting before Congress.

General Correspondence by date.