

Hill, James J.-Address

January 20, 1902

G. S. Barnes to J. J. Hill.

"I want to say to you that your talk to the people in the opera house [Fargo] was highly appreciated by one and all. I was very much gratified to have you go over the ground so thoroughly as you did as regards farming and the position taken by you in the emerging of the three railroads."

General correspondence by date