

Hill, J.J.-Address

May 20, 1886

Chas. B. Lamborn to J.J.Hill.

"I have taken the liberty of extracting from the 'St. Paul Pioneer Press' the substance of a speech, as therein reported, made by you to the Montana cattlemen May 4th to be used in one of our map folders" (Northern Pacific R.R.) "in which we present the advantages of stock raising and mixed farming in Dakota."
