

Hill, J.J.-Address

October 27, 1906

H.A.Potthoff to James J. Hill.

Encloses copy of "The Morgan Messenger," dated August 23, 1906 which states:

"The great livestock amphitheatre which will be opened and dedicated on Monday, Sept. 3, the opening day of the fair" [Minn. State Fair]... "is the finest and largest livestock amphitheatre of all the buildings in the country devoted to its uses."

"James J. Hill a life-long patron of husbandry and especially livestock breeding, is to make the address of dedication at 11 o'clock on Monday open. g day."

General correspondence by date