

Hill, J.J.-Begging Letters

See eight boxes of correspondence from individuals asking for financial assistance. These begging letters were becoming so numerous by 1900 that it was decided to keep them in a separate file. Previous to 1900 they have been filed in general correspondence. The eight boxes have been filed after General Correspondence.