

Hill, J.J.-Charities      May 20, 1906

Rev. Geo. A. Brown to J.J.Hill.

"In 1900 - Sept. 12 you very kindly made our school here" [Harriet Beecher Stowe Institute for colored children. At that time located at Danville, Ill., but later moved to Bloomington, Ill.] "a donation of $500 - which was a great help to us."

General correspondence by date

Hill, J.J.-Charities      May 20, 1906

See:

Negro Schools in U.S.