

Hill, J.J.-Animal Husbandry November 19, 1914
Interests

M.H.Reynolds to J.J.Toomey.

The testing of the cattle that were recently imported by J.J.Hill was done hurriedly because "Professor Shaw was somewhat worried over the war situation and it was quite certain we could not get the cattle out at all unless it could be done by a certain day."

General correspondence by date