

Hill, James J.-Monument 1918-1919
(Celtic Cross)

A file of papers (October 21, 1918-~~July 8~~<sup>Sept 22</sup>, 1919) relating to the celtic cross monument, a memorial Mrs. James J. Hill had designed for the private cemetery at North Oaks by Cram and Ferguson of Boston, and carved of Minnesota sandstone under their direction, was transferred in 1963 to the Louis W. Hill Collection. Drawing of the celtic cross and a blue print showing the private cemetery at North Oaks (by G.L.Nason of St. Paul, dated March 28, 1919) also were transferred.
