

Hill, J.J. - Death

May 27, 1916

Telegram M.R. Brown to John Carroll

"Mr. Hill suffering from an infection of the buttock and thigh is in serious condition for his age, but he is being carefully watched over. The infection was opened and drained today. He got through the operation nicely and is resting quietly."

General Correspondence by Date