

Hill, J.J.-Early Life

August 1, 1856

Verifax copy of original letter from J.J.Hill to his grandmother.

(This letter is in the L.W.Hill Collection.)

"After I left Canada I went direct to New York...after leaving New York I went to Philadelphia Baltimore Charleston Savannah and Pittsburgh spending a good deal of both time and money and afterwards I came back to New York. I took a notion to go and see St. P. so on the 11th of July I left and on the morning of the 12th I was coming into Toronto on board the steamer Europa ..."
