

Hill, J.J. - Honors

July 27, 1909

August 4, 1909

K. Takahira to J.M. Hawthorne, chairman of the Hill
Testimonial Committee, Seattle, J.M. Hawthorne, Chairman

enclosed in Hawthorne to Hill, August 4, 1909 Regretting the impossibility of being present at the unveiling of a monument to J.J. Hill.
Hawthorne's letter refers to that event on Aug.
3 and mentions Judge Burke's fine speech and Hill's importance in opening trade with Japan through the coming of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha to Seattle.
