

JJH - Family

Jan. 17, 1897

A.S.D. Hill to JJH, General Correspondence

"...We are somewhat lonesome since Norman and his wife have moved to their own farm... he never go in debt for anything... Jimmy the youngest boy is away at Pickering College a Quaker Institution... I am very glad to know that Wilfred is doing so well... I am a little too stout as I weigh 215 lbs. which is quite a load to carry around... Mary our sister is well all her children are married except the two youngest girls..."
