June 9, 1896

George A. Brooks to JJH, General Correspondence

"Dear Uncle You will be surprised to hear from me, but am so unsettled about what I have to do. When Uncle Alex came home from You the last time, He said you wanted me to work a while with Robert and John, well I work for Robert one year and received about Ten Dollars this year I have been working John since April 7th and I don't know what I will get..."
