

Holcombe, E. V.

July 6, 1877

Hill to "My dear Captain"[Holcombe?]

"The Red River Valley is a strange country ... altho' flat it dries up rapidly." Kittson is home - his recent little trip did him much good. ... I suppose he wrote you that he had tendered the Gov.General, Lord Dufferin, the use of one of our boats for his trip about the 28th July to the 1st of August."
