

Humboldt Redwood Company

May 5, 1896

J.S. Kennedy to Hill

Re the suit that the U.S. government has recently begun against the company. The large stockholders are Scotsmen, many of whom live in Edinburgh, such as Sir Geo. Warrender, Sir John Cowan, E. L. Blythe, and Lord Menzies. Enclosed is a letter from Lord Menzies, May 4, 1896

General Correspondence by Date