

Indians of No. Amer.-Music      April 22, 1904

Alfred C. Farrell to James J. Hill.

Requests Hill to give $1,000 to the Museum of Natural History, New York, "to send out Mr. Harvey Loomis, the well-known composer to study the music in the Indian camps of Minnesota and Dakota, the work covering four months. Securing the music by phonograph record, as well as noting it down on paper, finally making a full written discussion and report with the records, a full and complete duplicate of all the work to be presented to the University at Grand Forks, North Dakota."

General correspondence by date