

Inds. of N. Amer. - Reservations Sept.17,1895

Hill to W. G. Conrad, Great Falls

Unfortunate location of any Indians on a reservation adjoining the International Boundary, affording opportunity for renegades from one side ... to find a home on the other side... Better to keep Indians on small reservations where the agent can travel about and take the census in one or two days.

JJH LetterBook, 7/9/95 - 9/24/95, p. 433