

Interstate Commerce Commⁿ February 4, 1902

Hill to G. B. Harris carbon Will go to Washington where the President is anxious "that something should be done ... to improve the present interstate legislation and has suggested a Committee of railway men to confer with the [Interstate Commerce] Commission and agree upon conditions to be embodied in a Bill."

General Correspondence by Date