

Ireland, John

Jan. 25, 1897

Ireland to JJH, General Correspondence

"Referring to my 'old story,' I have to say that I am at that stage, when I can no longer put off people with promises, or prayers... this load of debt not only prevents me from using at the present time my influence, but threatens every day to destroy altogether this influence."