

Ireland, John.

August 9, 1880.

John Ireland to J. J. Hill.

Has called on Hill to introduce to him Bishop Spaulding of Illinois, "a most devoted friend of colonization." Asks for "a few passes for a trip to the Red River Valley, which I at last intend to visit with a small party of friends."

General Correspondence by date.

Ireland, John.

August 9, 1880.

[2nd letter of this date].

John Ireland to J. J. Hill.

General Correspondence. By date.