

Ireland, John

Dec. 26, 1892

Ireland to JJH, Gen. Corresp.

"You will, I trust, be patient with me if I ask you to remember your kind promise to come to my aid. I will need to receive another installment of your bounty so as to meet obligations maturing Wednesday. Please let me know whether you desire to see me at your office and send me a note by your secretary."