

Jackman, John J.

October 30, 1880

Hill to W.W. Curtis, Washington, D.C. "personal"

Re the Jackman case and the Commissioner's [of Land Office?] new departure. "Surely he will not allow his judgment to be warped so as to give J. the benefit of stolen money. It was to help him and at his own solicitation that we advanced the money in the first place, a fact which he admitted under oath, where he swears to changing the text of the letter making his first appeal for aid."
