

James, D. Willis

August 4, 1903

D. Willis James to J. J. Hill.

Is pleased by Judge Locren's "strong decision in favor of the Northern Securities Co." However, is "still inclined to think that the Supreme Court will decide against us," but that "their decision will be far less sweeping & injurious than the one ordered by the three judges in the circuit court."

General correspondence by date