

James, D. Willis

July 26, 1904

D. Willis James to James J. Hill.

D. Douglas has had a long talk with Paul Morton who "admits they are anxious lest Mr. Harriman get control of the A and T and thus (if he succeeds in his scheme against the N.P.) secure control of three of the great transcontinental systems."

. . . "D. Harriman Rockefeller & Kuhn Loeb intend to try to control the whole transcontinental R Rd system."
