

endowment fund of this college in January, 1910, and later changed and enlarged his promise, and the final offer was $50,000 to a total fund of $300,000.00, and of this subscription $12,500.00 was paid in December, 1911, the college having collected sufficient to complete $100,000.00 of the fund, and the remainder of the subscription was payable when $300,000.00, the total of the fund was all in.

The time for completion of the fund was extended a couple of times and the last date set for its close was the end of the year 1917."

~~Carbon. J. J. I. to E. C. Lindley, July 24, 1916~~

(see card 2)