

Knuppe, John
[Agent of Netherlands-
American Land Co.]

[August 26, 1912]

John Knuppe to [James J. Hill].

States that he came to St. Paul in 1876.

Complains of the treatment he received from Hill thirty-five years before the date of this letter, when he was acting as agent for Carp and the Dutch Bondholders, "when you and your associates had come to an agreement with the Committee of bondholders for the purchase of the St. Paul and Pacific."
