

Lake Minnetonka

JJH's farm there, near Orono of today, was named Maryhill. He moved his cattle from there to North Oaks about September, 1883.

On September 11, 1884, JJH wrote to J. Lydiard, Treas., Town of Medina, Long Lake, for list of his neighbors at Lake Minnetonka and a descriptive list of tracts of land they owned.

Lydiard's reply is found in JJH's "inward" letters and gives a full list of the lands.
