Lamont to JJH, General Correspondence

Refers to several business and personal matters:
"the event which occurs in your family tomorrow";
that JJH has been ill; the President's fishing trip;
"matters in New York with Brice; Mrs. Lamont's $1200; what he will do "as soon as this election is over"; and the note that "Our friends here think the effect of the retaliation proposed, if executed, would not injure any of the Northwestern roads."
